Honors Flex

What is Honors Flex?
- Requires completion of 25 credit hours of Honors coursework
- Allows you to use your prior college credit and AP credit to fulfill general education requirements
- Lets you use Honors coursework to complete areas of general education that you still need
- Provides flexibility for any major

Who completes the Honors Flex curriculum?
- Students who are bringing in more than six hours of prior college credit or AP credit
- Students in majors where the Honors Flex is beneficial (we'll help you make this decision)

What are the required courses in Honors Flex?
- Honors Seminar (HON 100, 1 credit hour)
- Honors Rhetoric (HON 102/103, 9 credit hours)
- Three required Honors seminars, choosing from any of the following course numbers to fulfill remaining general education requirements
  - HON 304W (mathematics)
  - HON 307W (arts)
  - HON 308W (humanities)
  - HON 310W (history)
  - HON 312W (social & behavioral science)
  - HON 320W (diversity)
- Honors Thesis (HON 420, 6 credit hours)
- Completion of all other general education and university requirements as needed

What could a typical schedule look like in Honors Flex?

First Semester: (16 credit hours)
- HON 100 (1)
- HON 102/103 (9)
- Wellness requirement (3)
- Major course (3)

Second Semester:
- HON 307W (3)
- HON 308W (3)
- Major courses

Third Semester:
- HON 320W (3)
- Major/other general education courses

Fourth Semester:
- Major/other general education courses

Fifth Semester:
- Major courses

Sixth Semester:
- HON 420 (3)
- Major courses

Seventh Semester:
- HON 420 (3)
- Major courses

Eighth Semester:
- Finish major courses
- Graduation!